AUDITOR'S TRANSMITTAL

The Honorable Michael F. Easley, Governor
The General Assembly of North Carolina
The Honorable L. Gail Godwin, Clerk of Superior Court

This report presents the results of our fiscal control audit of Perquimans County Clerk of Superior Court for the period July 1, 2002 through December 31, 2002. Our work was performed by authority of Chapter 147 of the General Statutes and was conducted in accordance with the standards contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. The objective of the audit was to gather and evaluate evidence about selected internal control policies and procedures designed to ensure reliable financial accounting and reporting and compliance with finance-related laws and regulations.

The results of our audit disclosed a significant weakness in internal control that is described in the Audit Findings and Recommendations section of this report. North Carolina General Statutes require the State Auditor to make audit reports available to the public. Copies of audit reports issued by the Office of the State Auditor may be obtained through one of the options listed in the back of this report.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The office of the Clerk of Superior Court is created by the North Carolina Constitution which mandates that there be a Clerk of Superior Court for each county. Under the constitution, it is the responsibility of the General Assembly to prescribe jurisdiction and the powers of the Clerk. Laws of the General Assembly regarding clerks must be uniformly applied in every county in the State.

Voters of each county elect the Clerk of Superior Court to a four-year term. Clerks are paid by the State, with their salaries scaled in accordance with the population of their counties. The Clerk appoints the assistants, deputies and employees in his or her office. The number of assistants and deputies that each clerk may employ varies from county to county depending on the volume of business. Assistant and deputy clerks are paid on a salary schedule fixed by the Administrative Office of the Courts based on education and years of service in the Clerk's office; the maximum and minimum salaries within that scale are fixed by the General Assembly.

The responsibilities of the Clerk are numerous and varied. The Clerk, as a judicial officer of the superior court, has judicial responsibilities. The Clerk is judge of probate; that is, the Clerk handles the probate of wills (proceedings to determine if a paper writing is a valid will) and the administration of estates of decedents, minors and incompetents. The Clerk also hears a variety of special proceedings such as adoptions, incompetency determinations and partitions of land and is empowered to issue arrest and search warrants and to exercise the same powers as a magistrate with respect to taking pleas of guilty to minor littering, traffic, wildlife, boating, marine fisheries, alcoholic beverage, state park recreation and worthless-check offenses.

The Clerk is also responsible for all clerical and record-keeping functions of the superior court and district court. The Clerk operates a unified record-keeping system for all civil actions, special proceedings, estates, criminal actions, juvenile actions, minutes of the Court, judgments, liens, lis pendens, and numerous other records required by law. The Clerk maintains the judgment docket, is custodian of evidence in civil and criminal trials, and issues civil summons and subpoenas. In addition, the Clerk invests money received and held by his or her office in trust and receives and administers insurance or other money on behalf of minors and incapacitated adults.

OBJECTIVE, SCOPE, METHODOLOGY, AND RESULTS

OBJECTIVE

As authorized by Chapter 147 of the General Statutes and in accordance with the standards contained in Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, we have conducted a fiscal control audit of Perquimans County Clerk of Superior Court. The objective of the audit was to gather and evaluate evidence about selected internal control policies and procedures designed to ensure reliable financial accounting and reporting and compliance with finance-related laws and regulations for the period July 1, 2002 through December 31, 2002.

Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control. Internal control is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance that relevant objectives are achieved. Because of inherent limitations in internal control, errors or fraud may nevertheless occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of internal control to future periods are subject to the risk that conditions may change or compliance with policies and procedures may deteriorate.

SCOPE

Our audit scope included selected internal controls in the following areas:

General

Control Environment - The control environment consists of the actions, policies, and procedures that reflect the overall attitude of top management about control and its importance to the entity. The control environment sets the tone of the organization, influencing the control consciousness of its employees.

Information System Controls - Information system controls include activities that relate to many computerized information system applications and support the effective functioning of application controls. Information system controls include access and end-user controls.

Financial Accounting and Reporting

Cash and Investment Cycle - The cash and investment cycle generally consists of the activities associated with the custody of cash and investments. Financial statement accounts typically impacted by the cycle include cash, certificates of deposit, and other investments.

OBJECTIVE, SCOPE, METHODOLOGY AND RESULTS (CONTINUED)

Cash Receipts Cycle – The cash receipts cycle generally consists of the activities associated with the receipt of cash. All financial statement accounts are impacted by this cycle.

Cash Disbursements Cycle – The cash disbursements cycle generally consists of the activities associated with disbursing cash for items other than operating and payroll costs. All financial statement accounts are impacted by this cycle.

Finance-Related Compliance

Listed below are the compliance areas with one or more examples of the criteria for each.

Cash Management and Investments – Laws and regulations set limits on authorized deposits and investments. Moneys are required to be deposited in approved depositories and invested in specific investment types. Accounts must be protected with adequate insurance and collateral. Also, disbursements that are unclaimed by payees for a prescribed time period are often required to be remitted to the State Treasurer in accordance with the State of North Carolina's Escheats and Abandoned Property Program.

Deposit of Receipts – Laws and regulations require deposit of moneys as soon as possible in order to safeguard assets and to enhance the cash management and investment program. Receipts over a specified amount are required to be deposited on a daily basis.

Annual Financial Reporting – Laws and regulations require preparation of annual financial report information in a prescribed format and within a prescribed timeframe. Financial statement information is required to be filed with the Administrative Office of the Courts timely after year-end.

Case Files – Laws and regulations set record maintenance and security requirements. Records are required to be filed in a secure location using a uniform indexing system.

Costs and Fees – Laws and regulations set costs and fees to be charged. Uniform costs and fees are required to be charged as established by state law.

Special Provisions – Laws and regulations impose specific requirements on particular entities or activities. Partial payment collections are required to be distributed in the order prescribed by state law. Other special provisions include the investment of accounts greater than $2,000, record retention requirements, property held for safekeeping procedures, and review procedures over monthly aging reports.

OBJECTIVE, SCOPE, METHODOLOGY AND RESULTS (CONCLUDED)

METHODOLOGY

To accomplish our audit objective, we gained an understanding of internal control, performed tests of control effectiveness, and performed corroborating direct tests of the accounting records, reports, and/or compliance as we considered necessary in the circumstances. Specifically, we performed procedures such as interviewing personnel, observing operations, reviewing policies, analyzing accounting records, and examining documentation supporting recorded transactions and balances. Our procedures were more limited than would be necessary to give an opinion on internal control, and accordingly, we do not express such an opinion.

RESULTS

The results of our audit disclosed a significant weakness in internal control that is described in the Audit Findings and Recommendations section of this report. The purpose of this report is to provide management and oversight organizations recommendations needed to improve internal control over financial accounting and reporting and compliance with finance-related laws and regulations. Consequently, reporting on accomplishments in areas that appear to be functioning properly is beyond the scope of this audit.

AUDIT FINDINGS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Matters Related to Financial Accounting, Reporting, or Compliance

Current Year Finding and Recommendation - The following finding and recommendation was identified during the current audit and represents a significant deficiency in internal control over financial accounting, reporting and compliance with finance-related laws and regulations.

SEGREGATION OF DUTIES RELATED TO FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT SYSTEM (FMS) ACCESS RIGHTS

One employee's FMS access rights result in the capability to receipt funds, void receipts and close out cash drawers.

The Clerk of Superior Court Financial Policies and Procedures Manual provides that no employee should have access rights enabling that person to receipt funds as well as void receipts and close out cash drawers. These access rights weaken the internal controls relative to the receipting of funds and the recording of transactions, compromising the Clerk's ability to properly record, process and report financial data.

Recommendation: Employee responsibilities should be segregated and FMS access rights updated to comply with the Clerk of Superior Court Financial Policies and Procedures Manual.

Clerk's Response: I currently have one employee who has FMS access rights to receipt funds, void receipts and close out cash drawers. This is a temporary situation as I had an employee who separated from employment in October 2002. Due to the budget crisis and the hiring freeze, I have not replaced that position at the present time. I have six employees. Two of those employees have head bookkeeper status and therefore, are ineligible to receipt or close out the cash drawers. It is necessary to have two cashiers so that one will be available when the other is out or at lunch. The same holds true for the head cashiers. With the situation of being short an employee, I was left with no choice but to allow one of the cashiers to also perform duties as head cashier. I have advertised for my deputy clerk position and will begin the process shortly of interviews and hiring. At the time that another employee is hired, I will rectify the problem and none of my employees will have both cashier and head cashier rights.
