BACKGROUND

We have conducted a performance audit of Macon County Clerk of Superior Court, as authorized by Chapter 147, Article 5A of the North Carolina General Statutes, which requires the Office of the State Auditor to periodically examine and report on the financial practices of state agencies.

The voters of each county elect a Clerk of Superior Court for a four-year term. Clerks are responsible for all clerical and record-keeping functions of the superior court and district court. The Clerks' offices collect, invest, and distribute assets in a fiduciary capacity. For example, the Clerks' offices collect fines and court costs, hold cash and property bonds, administer estates on behalf of minors, and distribute resources to governmental and private parties as required.

The North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (NCAOC) provides statewide support services for the courts, including court programs and management services; information technology; human resources services; financial, legal, and legislative support; and purchasing services. In addition, the NCAOC prepares and administers the court system's budget.

OBJECTIVES, SCOPE, AND METHODOLOGY

The objective of this performance audit was to identify improvements needed in internal control over selected financial matters. Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining effective internal control. Internal control is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance that relevant objectives are achieved. Errors or fraud may nevertheless occur and not be detected because of the inherent limitations of internal control. Also, projections of any evaluation of internal control to future periods are subject to the risk that conditions may change or that compliance with policies and procedures may deteriorate.

Our audit scope covered the period July 2021 through March 2022. In conducting our audit, we observed, documented, and evaluated the effectiveness of selected internal controls related to:

- Cash – The Clerk’s office collects various fines, fees, and court costs daily, as well as bonds, judgments, and other amounts. We examined internal controls to determine whether such controls were designed and implemented to ensure that the Clerk properly safeguarded and accounted for cash receipts. We also examined internal controls designed to ensure compliance with laws and regulations related to depositing cash receipts. During the audit period, the Clerk collected $2,824,344 in cash.
- Estates – The Clerk’s office is to ensure that all estates are charged an application fee plus an assessment based on the value of each estate’s inventory. An estate inventory is to be filed by the representative of the estate. We examined internal controls to determine whether such controls were designed and implemented to ensure that the Clerk properly obtained an inventory for each estate in compliance with laws and regulations. We also examined internal controls designed to ensure compliance with laws and regulations related to the appropriate assessment and collection of estate fees. During the audit period, the Clerk collected $117,461 in estate fees related to estates.

The Clerk’s office is to ensure that all estate guardians¹ are properly bonded based on the value of each annual estate inventory. An annual estate inventory is to be filed by the estate guardian of a minor or incapacitated adult. We examined internal controls designed to ensure that the Clerk properly obtained an inventory for each guardianship in compliance with laws and regulations. We also examined internal controls to determine whether such controls were designed and implemented to ensure that bonds assessed and collected were sufficient and in compliance with laws and regulations. During the audit period, auditors examined $2,292,546 in estate guardian bonds retained by the Clerk related to 34 estates.

- Escheats – The Clerk’s office is to transfer abandoned property to the state. The transfer results when the person legally entitled to the property fails to make a valid claim on the property within a prescribed period of time. After that time, all abandoned property held by the Clerk is required to be transferred to the North Carolina Department of State Treasurer. We examined internal controls to determine whether such controls were designed and implemented to ensure that the Clerk properly identified escheatable funds. We also examined internal controls designed to ensure compliance with laws and regulations related to escheating unclaimed funds after a prescribed period of time. During the audit period, the Clerk transferred $8,503 in escheats to the Department of State Treasurer.

- Trusts – The Clerk’s office receives, administers, and disburses trust funds for minors and incapacitated adults. We examined internal controls to determine whether such controls were designed and implemented to ensure that disbursements from minor and incapacitated adult trust accounts were proper to ensure compliance with laws and regulations. During the audit period, the Clerk disbursed $48,052 from minor and incapacitated adult trust accounts.

To accomplish the audit objective, auditors gained an understanding of the Clerk’s internal control over matters and evaluated the design of internal control. Auditors then performed further audit procedures consisting of tests of control effectiveness and/or substantive procedures that provide evidence about our audit objectives. Specifically, auditors interviewed personnel, observed operations, reviewed policies, analyzed accounting records, and examined documentation supporting recorded transactions and balances, as considered necessary in the circumstances. Whenever sampling was used, we applied a nonstatistical approach, but chose sample sizes comparable to those that would have been determined statistically. As a result, we were able to project our results to the population as applicable but not quantify the sampling risk. This approach was determined to adequately support our audit conclusions.

Because of the test nature and other inherent limitations of an audit, together with limitations of any system of internal and management controls, this audit would not necessarily disclose all deficiencies in internal control or instances of noncompliance.

As a basis for evaluating internal control, we applied the internal control guidance contained in professional auditing standards. However, our audit does not provide a basis for rendering an opinion on internal control, and consequently, we have not issued such an opinion. See the Appendix for internal control components and underlying principles that were significant to our audit objectives.

We conducted this performance audit in accordance with Generally Accepted Government Auditing Standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain sufficient, appropriate evidence to provide a reasonable basis for our findings and conclusions based on our audit objectives. We believe that the evidence obtained provides a reasonable basis for our findings and conclusions based on our audit objectives.

RESULTS AND CONCLUSIONS

Based on the results of audit procedures described in the OBJECTIVES, SCOPE, AND METHODOLOGY section of this report, auditors did not identify deficiencies in internal control or instances of noncompliance that are considered reportable under Government Auditing Standards.
